REPORT ON DIWALI FEST

Diwali is a festival of lights and symbolizes the spiritual “victory of light over darkness, good over evil, and knowledge over ignorance. Diwali is the day lord Rama, his wife Sita Devi and brother lakshmana return their homeland after 14 years in exile. The villagers lit a path for Rama, who had defeated the demon king Ravana. The people of Ayodhya lined the streets and their homes with oil wicks in clay lamps to welcome them. Diwali is known as the festival of lights, and depicts the victory of light over darkness, good over evil and so on.

Kamkus College of Law on 7th November, 2023 celebrated Diwali. The college campus was decorated with full of lights, beautiful display of arts and the students has made rangoli in the corridor, decorated it with flowers and light it with diyas. To mark Diwali celebration, the college organised the various competitions. The day started with various Activities such as inter-semester rangoli competition, art and craft making, paper lanterns, best out of waste creation contests were organised in all the classes. The classes were decorated by the students with flowers, dupattas, handmade crafts which was eye catching. Some of the students had also set up stalls for food items in which they prepared food without fire. All these items were mouth-watering snacks such as, sharbat-e- mohabbate, golgappas, chana jor garam, mini raj kachori, paan gulkand laddu, fruit custard, mini bread pizzas, bhelpuri, papdi chaat, nachos with cheese, shakes, sandwiches and many more. There were also a no of placards showing the name of the foods and price tags for the students. The program was started at 10 AM by preparing the food, making the rangolis and handicrafts. The various competition was organized for students on the theme Diwali. Our Principal Sir Prof. Sanjeev Kumar Tyagi and Head of the Department Dr. Seema Singh and Ms. Neetu Mankotia judged the competition and winners were decided by them. Other faculty members also tasted the food and appreciated the efforts made by them. Everybody appreciated these students for generous efforts were made. Then the programme ended with this noble gesture. Various programmes were presented one after the other by the students and certainly it was unique Diwali celebration. The teaching and non- teaching members of the college were also the part of the fest. With these entertainment programmes the faces of all the students were gleaming with joy and laughter. This also had a positive impact on the students, realizing their own creativity and talent coming out and the family of kamkus college of law were happy that we could remove the darkness from their hearts by filling it with light on this Diwali.

The event was coordinated by Ms Neelima Agarwal (Rangoli competition), Ms. Mohini Dobhal (food without fire) and Ms Chavi Choudhary (Art and craft competition).
